INDEX OF VOLUME 17, 1979

NUMBER 1, JANUARY–FEBRUARY 1979

EPA's New Emphasis on Ground-Water Research, by Courtney Riordan, pp. 2-4.
George Burke Maxey: A Lasting Influence on the Course of Modern Hydrology, by Gilbert F. Cochran, pp. 5-8.
Ground-Water Pollution — A Status Report, by David E. Lindorff, pp. 9-17.
Ground-Water Pollution — An Imminent Disaster, by Wayne A. Pettyjohn, pp. 18-24.
Ground-Water Pollution — A Limited Problem, by D. T. Clark, pp. 25-27.
Ground-Water Quality Standards — A Neutral View, by Donald K. Keech, pp. 30-34.
Ground-Water Quality Standards — Relevant, by J. H. McDermott, pp. 35-38.
Ground-Water Quality Standards — Irrelevant, by F. A. Rayner, pp. 39-44.
Land Application of Waste — State of the Art, by K. R. Wright & C. K. Rovey, pp. 47-61.
Land Application of Waste — Important Alternative, by John R. Sheaffer, pp. 62-68.
Land Application of Waste — An Accident Waiting to Happen, by Charles C. Johnson, Jr., pp. 69-72.
The Federal Ground-Water Protection Program — A Review, by Victor J. Kimm, pp. 75-79.
The Federal Ground-Water Protection Program — Today's Hope, by Charles W. Sever, pp. 80-82.
The Federal Ground-Water Protection Program — Tomorrow's Undoing, by Dale C. Mosher, pp. 83-86.
State Ground-Water Protection Programs — A National Summary, by Richard E. Bartelt, pp. 89-93.
State Ground-Water Protection Programs — Adequate, by Edwin H. Ross, pp. 94-101.
State Ground-Water Protection Programs — Inadequate, by James W. Dawson, pp. 102-108.

NUMBER 2, MARCH–APRIL 1979

Reflections on The Ground Water Quality Symposium at Minneapolis, by Harry E. LeGrand, pp. 134-135.
The 208 Planning Approach to Ground-Water Protection — A Program Overview, by Merna Hurd, pp. 136-141.
The 208 Planning Approach to Ground-Water Protection — A Foot in the Door, by Donna Wallace, pp. 142-147.
The 208 Planning Approach to Ground-Water Protection — What Is Wrong and What Can Be Done About It? by Kenneth D. Schmidt, pp. 148-153.
Controlled Degradation and/or Protection Zones — The Way It Looks, by David W. Miller, pp. 156-158.
Controlled Degradation and/or Protection Zones — Sense, by Ronald A. Landon, pp. 159-161.
Controlled Degradation and/or Protection Zones — Nonsense, by Herman Bouwer, pp. 162-164.
Ground-Water Computer Models — State of the Art, by Thomas A. Prickett, pp. 167-173.
Ground-Water Computer Models — Practical Tools, by Russell E. Darr, pp. 174-176.
Ground-Water Computer Models — Intellectual Toys, by Henry A. Baski, pp. 177-179.
Waterborne Disease — A Status Report Emphasizing Outbreaks in Ground-Water Systems, by Gunther F. Craun, pp. 183-191.
Waterborne Disease — Current Threat, by Robert C. Cooper, pp. 192-196.
Waterborne Disease — Historical Lesson, by I. M. Markwood, pp. 197-198.
Changing Patterns of Ground-Water Use in the United States, by Alexander Zaporozec, pp. 199-204.

NUMBER 3, MAY–JUNE 1979

Student Section, by William Back, p. 234.
Maine's Ground-Water Situation, by W. Bradford Caswell, pp. 235-243.
Monitoring of Subsurface Injection of Wastes, Florida, by John Vecchioli, pp. 244-249.
Prediction and Field Verification of Subsurface-Water Quality Changes During Artificial Recharge, Lubbock, Texas, by D. B. Grove & W. W. Wood, pp. 250-257.
Locating Ground Water in the Santa Catherina Area Using Geophysical Methods, by D. Wachs, A. Arad & A. Olshina, pp. 258-263.
Grout-Induced Temperature Rise Surrounding Wells, by F. J. Molz & C. E. Kurt, pp. 264-269.
Review of Leaky Artesian Aquifer Test Evaluation Methods, by William C. Walton, pp. 270-283.
Electric Analog Model Study of Aquifer in Krishni-Hindon Interstream Region, U.P., India, by C. P. Gupta, M. Thangarajan, & V.V.S. Gurunadha Rao, pp. 284-290.
Sources and Concentrations of Nitrate-Nitrogen in Ground Water of the Central Platte Region, Nebraska, by J. R. Gormly & R. F. Spalding, pp. 291-301.

NUMBER 4, JULY–AUGUST 1979

Training of Hydrogeologists for Ground-Water Pollution Evaluations, by Kenneth D. Schmidt, pp. 322-323.
Ground-Water Induced Changes in Lake Chemistry, by P. M. Dooris & D. F. Martin, pp. 324-327.
Evaluation of Nitrate in the Ground Water in the Delaware Coastal Plain, by Frederick N. Robertson, pp. 328-337.
Aquifer Transmissivity from Surficial Electrical Methods, by P. C. Heigold, R. H. Gilkeson, K. Cartwright, & P. C. Reed, pp. 338-345.
Spring Discharge in Relation to Rapid Fissure Flow, by Edward John Smith, pp. 346-350.
Modelling Rapid Flow in Aquifers, by K. R. Rushton & K. S. Rathod, pp. 351-358.
Mathematical Model Application in Ground-Water Studies of Iran, by F. Ghassemi, pp. 359-365.
A Study of the Reuse of Reused Water, by E. D. Smith, R. M. Sweazy, G. A. Whetstone, & R. H. Ramsey, pp. 366-374.

NUMBER 5, SEPTEMBER–OCTOBER 1979

Mathematical Ground-Water Models May be Intellectual Toys Today, But They Should Be Useful Tools Tomorrow, by Jay H. Lehr, pp. 418-422.
A Method of Aquifer Testing and Its Application to an Anisotropic Inhomogeneous Multiple Aquifer System, by Mirko Riha, pp. 423-428.
Hydrogeological Processes and Chemical Reactions at a Landfill, by M. J. Baedecker & W. Back, pp. 429-437.
The Application of a Digital Model for Evaluating the Bedrock Water Resources of the Maumee River Basin, Northwestern Ohio, by Thomas G. Naymik, pp. 438-445.
Analysis of Changes in Ground-Water Levels in a Sewered and an Unsewered Area of Nassau County, Long Island, New York, by Dennis J. Sulam, pp. 446-455.
The Effects of Urbanization on Ground-Water Quality — A Case Study, by C. Eisen & M. P. Anderson, pp. 456-462.
Fracture-Controlled Ground-Water Circulation and Well Siting in the Vicinity of Laramie, Wyoming, by P. W. Huntoon & D. A. Lundy, pp. 463-469.
Evolution of Ground-Water Management Policy for Laramie, Wyoming, 1869-1979, by P. W. Huntoon & D. A. Lundy, pp. 470-475.
Tracing Subterranean Flow of Sewage-Plant Effluent in Lower Ordovician Dolomite in the Lebanon Area, Missouri, by J. Skelton & D. E. Miller, pp. 476-486.
Prevalence of Enteroviruses in Ground Water of Israel, by Y. Marzouk, S. M. Goyal & C. P. Gerba, pp. 487-491.

NUMBER 6, NOVEMBER–DECEMBER 1979

The Ground-Water Geothermal Heat Pump: An Idea Whose Time Has Come, by Jay H. Lehr, pp. 522-524.
Aquifer Coefficients Determined from Multiple Well Effects, Fernandina Beach, Florida, by Craig B. Bentley, pp. 525-531.
Programmable Hand Calculator Programs for Pumping and Injection Wells: I — Constant or Variable Pumping (Injection) Rate, Single or Multiple Fully Penetrating Wells, by D. L. Warner & M. G. Yow, pp. 532-537.
Assessing Public Ground-Water Supplies in Illinois, by A. P. Visocky & H. A. Wehrmann, pp. 538-543.
Ground-Water Resource Management in Nebraska, by C.A.P. Fricke & D. T. Pederson, pp. 544-549.
Collapse Pressure of Thermoplastic Water Well Casings, by Carl E. Kurt, pp. 550-555.
A Simplified Statistical Sequence Applied to Routine Water Quality Analysis: A Case History, by George A. Alther, pp. 556-561.
Chemical Changes in an Industrial Waste Liquid During Post-Injection Movement in a Limestone Aquifer, Pensacola, Florida, by G. G. Ehrlich, E. M. Godsy, C. A. Pascale & J. Vecchioli, pp. 562-573.
Geophysical Investigations of Ground Failure Related to Ground-Water Withdrawal — Picacho Basin, Arizona, by R. C. Jachens & T. L. Holzer, pp. 574-585.
Ground-Water Pollution by Transfer of Oil Hydrocarbons, by J. J. Fried, P. Muntzer & L. Zilliox, pp. 586-594.
An Anomalous Occurrence of Sodium Bicarbonate Water in a Flood Plain in a Carbonate Terrane, by N. C. Krothe & R. R. Parizek, pp. 595-603.
